

Title: NSTP Syllabus Workshop

Participation: The Vice President of Academic Affairs, NSTP Directors from Vita Campuses, Unit Coordinators, Team Leaders/Trainers, IMDO Head, IEO Director

Date and Time: 8:00am - 5:00pm on July 22, 2025 (Tuesday)

Venue: VSU Main Smart Room

Rationale:

The National Service Training Program (NSTP) is a vital component of higher education in the Philippines, aimed at fostering civic consciousness and defense preparedness among the youth. As societal challenges and community needs evolve, it is essential to revisit and enhance the NSTP syllabus to ensure its continued relevance, responsiveness, and alignment with national development goals. This workshop serves as a platform for NSTP implementers, educators, and coordinators to collaboratively review, update, and standardize the syllabus across its components.

Objectives:

At the end of this training workshop, participants will be able to:

1. To review the existing NSTP syllabus and identify areas for improvement.
2. To align NSTP syllabus content with current national priorities and community development needs.
3. To integrate innovative and context-responsive strategies in NSTP instruction.
4. To promote collaboration and consistency among NSTP implementers.
5. To produce a revised and standardized NSTP syllabus for institutional use.

Methodology/Strategy:

The training workshop will be conducted through an interactive discussion led by the resource speaker, with group analysis of the current NSTP syllabus, identifying strengths and weakness, and areas for enhancement, syllabus drafting consolidating inputs into a revised NSTP Syllabus framework with proposed modules, activities, and assessments tools.

Expected Participants:

NSTP Directors from Vita Campuses, Unit Coordinators, Trainers/Team Leaders
