Dear Mr. Igcasama:

Greetings!

I am writing to inform you that Econ 135, one of the classrooms previously designated for lectures under the Department of Economics, has been officially repurposed as a laboratory room. This new facility is intended for the practical and technical training of Economics students, specifically for the following courses:

1. Econ 115 – Econometrics
2. Agec 115 - Econometrics
3. Econ 148 – Analytical and Statistical Packages for Economics I
4. Econ 149 - Analytical and Statistical Packages for Economics II
5. APEC 253 – Statistical Methods in Applied Economics
6. AgEc 197 – Methods of Agricultural Research
7. Bcon 143 - Cooperatives
8. Agec 211 – Statistical Methods
9. Agec 248 – Research in Agricultural Economics
10. Agec 151 – Benefit-Cost Analysis

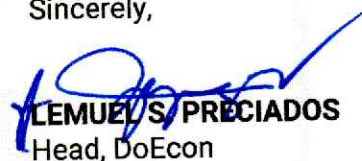

The laboratory is now fully equipped with computer units and essential facilities for data analysis, statistical modeling, and other computational requirements integral to the current Economics curriculum.

Please see the attached photo for your reference

We kindly request that this room be updated in the official records and removed from the list of available lecture rooms in the Department of Economics.

Thank you for your attention and ongoing support.

Sincerely,

LEMUEL S. PRECIADOS
Head, DoEcon
