Reason(s) for Changing:

To be honest, Agribusiness is not really my first choice. I took this course because my brother wants me to take it, he is an agribusiness graduate here in Visayas State University with that he also wants me to pursue this degree for he can help me to get a job easily in the future. However, I just realized that to be an Educator is what I'm truly passionate with and teaching is what my heart desires. Now that I have given the chance to shift, I'm ready to stand and take the risk which is to pursue teaching as long as this is really what my heart wants and my life dream is to be a professional Educator. I know that with my enthusiasm in the field of Teaching particularly in English I would do my very best to fare much better. Thank you very much!
