Dear Ms. Castañeda,

Good day!

This has reference to the offering of Soil 200, Special Topics (SOIL291) and Master's Thesis (SOIL300) of the Department of Soil Science) which will be distributed among faculty of the department. In the cumulus portal, these courses were lumped together in one (1) section. Since these courses are highly specialized depending on the field of interest of the students, may I request that these will be separated/split and be assigned to the cumulus portals of the faculty with appropriate field of specialization. Below is the list of the undergraduate and graduate faculty who will handle the course and the students per course/section.
