<h3 style="text-align: center;">NARRATIVE REPORT</h3> Lipay ang Kalibutan with Sir Nicky Dumapit! Lipay kaayo ang kalibutan as our guest speaker, Sir Nicky Dumapit, captivated participants in his activity, "Harmonizing with Nature: Exploring Instruments from Indigenous and Recycled Materials and Environmental Stewardship" at the FFES-AVR, last April 29, 2025. His advocacy for the Philippine environment came to life through instruments crafted from recyclable materials, proving that harmony can be found in sustainability. With a commanding shell blow, Sir Nicky signaled the start of the morning session, where he shared his deep appreciation for natural sounds — those found in forests and the environment. He showcased his handcrafted instruments, created from shells, plastic bottles, pipes, and spare wood, demonstrating how creativity can turn everyday objects into musical masterpieces. As he humbly put it, "Murag buang" — embracing innovation and resourcefulness in the most eccentric yet beautiful way.

In the afternoon, he guided students in a hands-on instrument-making session, teaching them how to craft pieces that replicate the sounds of nature, including the “tuko” call and bird melodies. As the event ended, Sir Nicky expressed his heartfelt gratitude to the crowd for their enthusiasm and engagement. He reminded everyone to cherish the little things in life — in a fast-paced world, taking time to appreciate nature and its rhythms is essential.
