Reason(s) for Changing:

BSGE is my first choice and I really love engineering course but sadly I failed in my first attempt, but I didn't loss hope. I'm hoping that this time I can be able to pass the course that I really loved. Because to become a GE is not just my dream it also my lolo's dreamed. I hope you will approved me to shift even if my last grades aren't that high because I can't focus, I'm not dedicated to it because my heart really want Engineering.
