Justification for recommending the faculty (focus on relevance to present work):

The Philippine Sociological Society is a non-profit and SEC-registered organization founded in 1953. It was formed by various social science professors and scholars from different Philippine educational institutions to promote human knowledge and welfare by encouraging and disseminating the study and discussion of affairs in sociology and related disciplines. While sociology is the core of the ISRDS Graduate Program, the participation of the faculty in this Conference will build her sociological perspectives which will be useful for the ISRDS and its graduate students.
