Dear Dr. Tan:

Warmest greetings from the Department of Economics!

The Junior Philippine Economics Society Regional Council for Visayas will hold its Regional Convention for Visayas on March 23 (Saturday), 2024 in Tacloban City with the theme "Sustainable Futures: Navigating Environmental Resilience and Social Equity in the Visayas Region". Our BSEcon students were invited to attend. This convention promises to be a compelling forum, providing students with an invaluable platform for scholarly discourse on regional economics. It also delve into profound insights shared by industry experts, engage intellectual discussions, and foster meaningful connections with fellow enthusiasts of economics across the Visayas region.

In this regard, and on behalf of the Department of Economics, we would like to request that our students will be allowed to attend in this convention. A total of 70 students signified their participation (see attached document). Furthermore, we would like also to request for the use of 2 units VSU bus free of charge including fuel chargeable to the Student Welfare Fund. Two (2) of our junior faculty will accompany the students.

Your continuous support to this activity is deeply appreciated. Thank you very much and more power!

Very respectfully yours,
