Subject: Approval to Review Research Manuscript for Publication

Dear President Yepes,

Warmest greetings!

I am writing to seek your approval to allow me to review a manuscript for publication. I was invited by the International Journal of Disaster Risk Reduction to review a manuscript entitled: Co-creating solutions for Disaster Risk Reduction – opportunities and challenges. This opportunity will enhance my research writing knowledge and skills, particularly on the topic of disaster risk reduction in which I am building my expertise. Hence, reviewing manuscripts is one way to update me with new research methodologies, strategies in the application of theories, and the trends in the discipline.

I will do the review during off-work hours to ensure that it will not affect my responsibilities. I enclosed here the invitation to review from the IJDRR journal.

Thank you and I look forward to your favorable response to my request.

Sincerely yours,

GINA A. DELIMA
