Dear Dr. Tulin:

Good day to you!

I am sorry that I stopped my studies for the past semesters because I had a severe depression and anxiety. I never wanted to stop however my body cannot work out well especially my mental aspect and I was advised from my doctor to rest. But now by the grace of God I am healed and eager to finish my studies and looking forward to graduate to my beloved alma mater. And I hope that you will guide and support to fulfil my dreams.
Thank you and God bless.

Respectfully yours,
