Reason(s) for Changing:

This is the 2nd time I wish to change my degree course, the first one was failed. Just like before I really want to pursue Nursing but then there is doubt in me, what if I failed again. So I ask God to help me out whether I continue to shift in Nursing or in another field (education). I asked a sign and then education was preveil. For me it's better to take a path that it leads me to God. His will is always I desire the most so then I changed my mind to not to change in nursing but in Education field. The reason of why I wish to change a course because for almost a year that I taking up Agribusiness I found myself not happy and really felt like "hindi ito yung gusto ko maging."

I didn't know what lies ahead but one thing for sure God already prepared a better plan for me. In His perfect time, everything will fall into place. In His will, He will make it happen. In Jesus Christ, I trust.
