Dear Dr. Yepes:

Greetings!

I have read from the VSU job posting that you need a professor for the faculty of Nursing. I am qualified for the position, hence this application.

I am a PhD in Nursing Science graduate and have been a senior faculty member of this esteemed institution for almost 15 years. I have played a pivotal role in the College of Nursing's success, achieving a 100 percent passing rate for BSN graduates for nearly a decade. My dedication to student development has been instrumental in preparing our students for local and international lifelong learning. Prior to my current job, I gained valuable experience as a registered nurse in various departments at Northern Samar Provincial Hospital, Catarman. I also worked in a tertiary-level hospital in Saudi Arabia for more than a year.

With the above qualifications, I can facilitate in conducting research and implementing the institution's extension programs. Also, as a registered midwife, I can teach nursing and midwifery programs in the classroom and supervise students in their clinical duties, especially in labor and delivery. Furthermore, I can do lectures in this institution's master's degree program in nursing once it opens in August 2025.

My skills and experiences are a valuable addition to achieving the VMGO of this institution, and I am eager to make a significant impact as a member of the teaching staff at the College of Nursing. Please see the attached documents for your perusal.

Thank you very much, and may God bless you more.

Respectfully Yours,

MICHELLE A. CALDA
