About Me

I am a fresh graduate and a newly licensed professional teacher. I may not yet have work experience, however, my exposure during my teaching internship became my training ground for applying all the strategies and methods of teaching I learned in my 4 years as a pre-service teacher, and do it effectively and efficiently. Additionally, as a newly professional teacher, I am equipped with a strong understanding of the subjects/areas in which I am trained in terms of content knowledge and pedagogy, as well as research-based knowledge. Above all, I am a newly licensed professional teacher dedicated and committed to teaching.
