

Good Day,

Mam/Sir!

I'm James Anthony B. Cosido, I am a product of the globally competitive Visayas State University (VSU) and had been serving as CHED Full Scholar as well with a Degree in Agriculture major in Horticulture. Right now, I am keen to find work related to my field of education to earn money and gain some experience in the field of my course. I am writing this letter to express my great desire to apply and served my beloved Alma mater, the Visayas State University.

I am interested in this job listing because it is within the area of my learning and experience. With the proper guidance, I am confident that I would be able to satisfactorily perform the task that would be assigned to me. I believe that my education and years of studying mold me enough to do work with good attitude towards others. The main strength that I have, which I will contribute to this position is my dedication to the work and my fast ability to learn and adapt. I also continuously work towards achieving my goals through hard work and excellence.

I hope you find my qualifications adequate and I hope for a positive response. Should there be an interview, please don't hesitate to contact me from the details below and the attached application letter.

Sincerely,

JAMES ANTHONY B. COSIDO
