CAREER OBJECTIVE

As a teacher imbued with a sense of moral values, excellence, intelligence, and integrity, I would like to:

- to teach and care for the students in an inspirational way through knowing and understanding their needs; providing a sense of leadership; and keeping them abreast with the problems, conflicts, issues and its solutions to keep them on moving forward in the fast-paced world;
- to be a part and parcel of the educational institution in fostering and expanding excellence in the education system; and
- to utilize my knowledge, skills and expertise in honing the students holistically which I firmly believe will serve as a powerful drive for the success of the younger generation and in order to build a stronger nation.
