Joel Q. Mabalhin
Department Head
Department of Teacher Education
Visayas State University
Visca Baybay City, Leyte

Dear Mr. Mabalhin,

I am writing to express my enthusiastic interest in the teaching position at the Department of Teacher Education at Visayas State University. I believe my background and skills align perfectly with the values and goals of your esteemed institution.

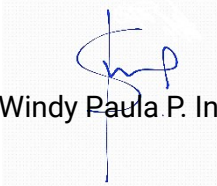

I'm a graduate of the Bachelor of Elementary Education, and I hold a Master of Education in English. I have four years of experience teaching a diverse range of students at the tertiary level. Throughout my teaching journey, I have consistently endeavored to create an inclusive and engaging learning environment that encourages critical thinking and intellectual curiosity.

My approach to education involves employing innovative teaching methodologies that cater to individual learning styles while encouraging collaborative and interactive class discussions. By infusing technology and real-world examples into my lessons, I aim to connect theoretical concepts with practical applications. Thus enriching the learning experience for my students.

At Visayas State University, renowned for its academic excellence and commitment to holistic development, I see an opportunity to contribute to the growth of young minds and inspire them to become compassionate, lifelong learners. Moreover, I am excited by the prospect of collaborating with esteemed colleagues.

Thank you for considering my application. I would be delighted to discuss further how my qualifications and teaching philosophy align with the vision of Visayas State University. Please find my detailed resume attached. I look forward to the opportunity to contribute to the academic community at VSU Baybay City in Leyte.

Sincerely,

Windy Paula P. Into
