Dr. Romel B. Armecin
Director, National Abaca Research Center
Visayas State University
VISCA, Baybay City, Leyte, Philippines 6521

Dear Dr. Armecin,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Science Aide position at the National Abaca Research Center, Visayas State University. I learned about this opportunity through the university's job posting. I am enthusiastic about the prospect of joining your team, as the role closely aligns with my academic background and professional aspirations. I believe that this position will not only foster my personal growth but also allow me to make a meaningful contribution to the research center.

I hold a Bachelor's degree in Biotechnology and possess a robust academic foundation in bioinformatics, metagenomic profiling, and microbiology. Throughout my academic journey, I have acquired extensive experience in laboratory-based research and data analysis. My approach to research is characterized by strong organizational skills and a keen attention to detail. I am highly motivated, a quick learner, and capable of both independent and collaborative work within a team.

As a former student of Visayas State University and a recipient of the DA-Biotech scholarship, I had the privilege of gaining exposure to a variety of laboratory environments and receiving guidance and training from seasoned professionals. I bring considerable expertise in laboratory operations and equipment maintenance, coupled with a proven track record of consistently delivering accurate and reliable research results. My abilities extend to comprehensive record-keeping, excellent analytical skills, and a strong aptitude for research.

I am confident that I can make valuable contributions to your team, and I am committed to giving my best efforts. I welcome the opportunity to discuss my qualifications further in a personal interview. Thank you for considering my application, and I eagerly anticipate the possibility of speaking with you in person about my enthusiasm for this position.

Yours sincerely,
Shaira Anne L. Quinto
