Dear Sir,

I am writing this letter to express my sincere interest in applying for a teaching position as a full-time or part-time social studies instructor. I am eager to contribute to your esteemed institution, bringing a strong passion for education and a deep commitment to fostering student growth and development.

I completed my Bachelor of Secondary Education at Leyte Normal University, majoring in Social Studies. My educational background has provided me with a comprehensive understanding of educational principles, instructional techniques, and curriculum development. Additionally, I gained practical teaching experience through teaching internship at LNU-Integrated Laboratory School, where I applied my knowledge and engage with diverse groups of students.

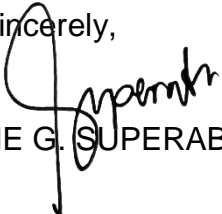

I am pleased to share that I passed the licensure examination for professional teachers in march 2023. I am now officially qualified to begin my journey as an educator, equipped with the knowledge and skills to positively impact student's lives. I am committed to creating a positive and inclusive learning environment. I am also proficient in using technology to enhance learning experiences and promote student engagement.

As of now, I don't hold a master's degree, I am actively planning to pursue one in the near future. I recognize the importance of advanced education in enhancing my teaching capabilities and am dedicated to continuous professional development to ensure I remain at the forefront of educational practices.

Enclosed with this letter are my resume, diploma, TOR and license ID for your perusal. I would appreciate the opportunity to discuss my qualifications and how I can contribute to your institution in a teaching role. I am available for an interview at your convenience and would gladly provide any additional information you may require.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of joining your institution and working towards its mission of providing quality education for all.

Yours sincerely,
