Dear Sir Al,

Good day!

I am writing to formally express my interest in reapplying for the position of Part-Time Instructor within the Department of Philosophy and Social Sciences. Having previously served in this capacity, I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to continue contributing to the educational mission of your esteemed institution.

I have been here for almost two years and those fruitful years have inspired me and helped me grow professionally. During my previous tenure as a part-time instructor, I found immense satisfaction and fulfillment in engaging with students and facilitating their learning experiences. The dynamic environment and the opportunity to impart knowledge and mentor aspiring professionals were both professionally rewarding and personally enriching.

I have been committed to continuously enhancing my pedagogical strategies to improve student outcomes. The feedback from students and colleagues regarding my teaching methods and the collaborative spirit I have experienced] has only strengthened my desire to continue in this role.

In addition to my teaching responsibilities, I have enjoyed participating in departmental meetings and contributing to curriculum development initiatives. I am keen to further these contributions and continue supporting the department's goals and the university.
