Dr. Edgardo E Tulin

University President

Visayas State University

Baybay City, Leyte, Philippines

Dear Dr. Tulin,

In line with the job vacancy post issued this prestigious university, the undersigned have noticed that you need an agricultural engineer who have background in agriculture, bioprocess, and food process engineering. It happens to be that the undersigned had experience in both fields as he is a graduate of Master in Agricultural Engineering with major in Agricultural and Bioprocess Engineering and minor in Food Science at the University of the Philippines Los Baños.

The undersigned had a passion in teaching that is why he became an instructor at the Visayas State University main campus as soon as he passed the board exam for agricultural engineers. He handled professional courses in agricultural engineering, general courses in mathematics and engineering sciences, food science and engineering, and agriculture. In addition, he is a member of the graduate school of the Visayas State University where he handled advance courses in thermal processing, product development and optimization, and statistics for food science. Also, he had advised many undergraduate students and he is a member of graduate advisory committee for graduate students.

As a professional, the undersigned had published papers, patents, and utility models. He presented papers in regional, national, and international fora. He also served as reviewer of the Science and Humanities Journal and Annals of Tropical Research Journal – publication journals of the Visayas State University. In addition, he also served as a pre-board exam review instructor for the Professional Licensure Examination for Agricultural Engineers. Additional information is found in the CV and PDS attached with this letter

Given this experience and qualifications, the undersigned would be a great asset for the agricultural and biosystems engineering division of the university. Thus, the undersigned would like to apply for the vacant teaching position of your university and would very much appreciate if given an opportunity for a face-to-face or online interview. Thank you for your time and the undersigned would be grateful for your response.

Most Sincere,

Julious Bagarinao Cerna
