PROFILE: I am a highly accomplished professional with a solid educational background in Mass Communication and a Master's Degree in Language Teaching. With extensive experience in the teaching industry since 2018, including employment at SDO Baybay City, I have honed my skills in delivering high-quality education, particularly in the realm of language and communication across various platforms.

In addition to my academic and professional achievements, I bring a strong cultural orientation to my work. Having been raised in six different regions, I have developed a keen adaptability to diverse environments and teams. My diverse background ensures that I can easily integrate and thrive in any setting. For a comprehensive overview of my professional and academic performance, please refer to the details below

PUBLICATIONS AND RELEVANT CREATIVE WORKS

THE COLOSSAL BEASTS OF THIS EPOCH Literary Work Writer Dreamer Publishing Services Vol. 01, Issue 03 – A Literary Magazine for Educators I successfully published my literary work through a national publishing service, titled “ The Colossal Beasts of the Epoch .” The book explores how individuals can transform into something unfamiliar within their own world. Despite these transformations, the message remains clear: people can still change the world—not by altering who they are, but by harnessing the full potential of the "beasts" within them for the betterment of society.
Analysis of Senior High School Students' Visual Language of a Regional Film Graduate Research (Author) This is the approved research title for my master's degree, and I aim to complete this study during the upcoming summer class. Despite encountering a deadline constraint imposed by Visayas State University, I possess the required data. The research focuses on examining the understanding and knowledge of grade 12 students who have already undergone visual language instruction as part of their media and information course. The analysis will revolve around their comprehension of visual elements, storytelling techniques, and cinematic language employed in a regional film context. The findings of this research will contribute to a deeper understanding of the effectiveness of visual language education and its impact on students' interpretive skills in the realm of regional filmmaking
EASTERN VISAYAS MAIL Journalist/Contributor As a News Article Journalist for this Weekly Community Newspaper, I am dedicated to providing engaging and informative news articles that highlight local issues and newsworthy events within my assigned scope. I meticulously research, write, and submit articles that capture the essence of our community, ensuring accuracy and quality in every piece. By keeping our readers well-informed and connected, I play a vital role in fostering a sense of community and contributing to the vibrant fabric of our neighborhood.

BCSHS OFFICIAL FACEBOOK PAGE School Documentation and Publicity Coordinator For the past two years, I have had the privilege of serving as the Documentation and Publicity Officer for our school. In this role, my responsibilities encompassed capturing and documenting various school events, creating compelling graphics, and producing informative news articles. These efforts aimed to share the vibrant happenings within our school with the wider community, ensuring that people outside the school were well-informed. Additionally, I took charge of marketing communications and advertisement, effectively promoting our school and its offerings to attract prospective students and stakeholders. Through my dedicated work, I played a crucial role in enhancing the visibility and reputation of our school.

Visual Arts for Mental Health and the Environment funded by the East-West Center in Honolulu, Hawaii, United States of the America

Multimedia Manager

I was appointed as the Multimedia Manager for the Visual Arts for Mental Health and the Environment project, funded by the East-West Center in Honolulu, Hawaii, United States of America, within the Department of Development Communication at Visayas State University. In this role, I led the creation of video lessons for the school-for-the-air projects, which involved collaboration with two divisions in the region. Throughout my months of dedicated work, I ensured that all produced outputs were consistently aligned with the project's objectives, effectively promoting mental health and environmental awareness through visually compelling content.

Advocacy Paintings on Anti Human Trafficking of Women & Children Funded by Klau Center for Civil and Human Rights at the University of Notre Dame in Indiana, USA

Multimedia Manager

I was entrusted by the VSU Department of Development Communication to spearhead a comprehensive project involving the creation of video lessons, graphic designs, and social media advertisements. With my expertise, I meticulously crafted the videos from inception to completion, ensuring their quality and relevance. These informative and engaging videos were made accessible on the department's website and official Facebook page, effectively reaching a wide audience and facilitating effective communication and learning

DepEd Baybay sa Kahanginan

Overall Chairman of Video Editing and Graphic Design

As the lead producer of educational videos for learners during the pandemic, I took on the responsibility of overseeing the entire production process. I ensured that the videos were informative, engaging, and tailored to the needs of the students. Additionally, I played a crucial role in training teachers on best practices for producing high-quality videos, equipping them with the necessary skills and knowledge to effectively engage students through this medium. By spearheading the production efforts and empowering teachers, I contributed to the continuity of education during challenging times, ensuring that students had access to valuable learning resources.

Baybay City Senior High School Hymn

Videographer, Concept Designer, and the Overall Director of the Video

As the audio and video production lead for the school hymn, my primary responsibility was to create a compelling and culturally significant representation of our school's values and identity. I took charge of the entire production process, ensuring that the audio recording and video elements effectively conveyed the essence of our school's culture. By delivering a high-quality audio and video production, I helped foster a sense of pride, unity, and belonging among students, staff, and stakeholders, while upholding the rich traditions and values of our educational institution.

Baybay City Division Hymn – Hymn of Feats

Videographer, Concept Designer, and the Overall Director of the Video

In my role as the Videographer, Concept Designer, and Overall, Director of SDO Baybay City Hymn entitled the Hymn of Feats, I was entrusted with the task of creating a visually captivating and emotionally resonant production. Taking charge of the entire production process, I meticulously planned and executed every aspect to ensure that the audio and video elements effectively communicated the values and identity of our school. By delivering a high-quality production, I aimed to foster a deep sense of pride, unity, and belonging among students, staff, and stakeholders, while upholding the rich traditions and values that define our educational institution

SDO Baybay City – National Anthem

Videographer, Concept Designer, and the Overall Director of the Video

As the lead creator of the modified and localized National Anthem for the Schools Division Office of Baybay City, my task involved designing a rendition that reflects the unique identity and values of our division. In addition, I curated video clips that showcased the diverse cultures of Baybay City to accompany the anthem. By carefully selecting and integrating these visuals, I aimed to create a powerful audio-visual representation that resonated with the local community. Through this project, I sought to instill a sense of pride, unity, and cultural appreciation among students, staff, and stakeholders while honoring the heritage and traditions of Baybay City.

Logo of District 3 Office

Concept Designer and Lay-out & Graphic Designer

In my role as the designer, I was entrusted with the task of creating an original and visually inclined logo for the office of District 3. Over the course of more than a month, I dedicated my efforts to meticulously crafting a logo that would effectively convey the strength and identity of the office. Through a thoughtful and iterative design process, I carefully selected and incorporated elements that symbolized the office's resilience and power. By ensuring every detail was aligned with the office's values, I aimed to create a logo that not only visually captivated but also communicated the inherent strength of District 3 to stakeholders and the community at large.

Logo of the BCSHS Arts and Design Department

Concept Designer and Lay-out & Graphic Designer

In my role as the designer, I was tasked with creating an original and visually captivating logo for the Arts and Design Department. Over the course of an extensive period, I devoted meticulous attention to detail to ensure that every element of the logo represented the essence and creativity of the department. Through a thoughtful and iterative design process, I carefully selected colors, typography, and visual elements that harmoniously conveyed the artistic spirit and unique identity of the department. By creating a visually inclined logo, I aimed to establish a strong and recognizable visual presence for the Arts and Design Department, reflecting its passion, innovation, and dedication to artistic excellence.

Chief Photographer and Assistant Lay-out and Graphic Designer

As the lead photographer for a regional photo book project, I skillfully captured stunning images over the course of a month-long production. Beyond photography, I also took on the responsibility of post-production, skillfully editing and manipulating the photographs to enhance their visual impact.

BCSHS Lanyard

Concept Designer and Lay-out & Graphic Designer

As the creative mind behind the original design, I took the initiative to craft the official lanyard for BCSHS (Baybay City Senior High School). With the full endorsement of the school head, I successfully sold these high-quality lanyards at a reasonable price, ensuring that students and staff could proudly display their school affiliation while maintaining affordability.

Baybay City Youth Film Festival

Film Festival Coordinator

I played a pivotal role in the remarkable achievement of organizing the inaugural film festival in the City of Baybay. As part of the Grade 12 media and information literacy program, I diligently guided and equipped students with the necessary skills to create impactful short films addressing pertinent societal issues. From the initial stages to the culmination of the film festival, I provided unwavering support, ensuring the students' success and fostering a platform for creative expression within our community.

VSU-YRRP IEC PROJECT

Videographer, Video Editor, and Graphic Designer

I was hired by the Department of Development Communication of VSU as the Video Editor, Cameraman, and Graphic Designer for their instructional video titled "The Process of Grafting Bell Pepper and Chili Pepper." In this role, I was responsible for capturing high-quality footage, editing the video content, and designing engaging graphics to enhance the instructional materials. The final video was submitted to the department, showcasing the step-by-step process of grafting bell pepper and chili pepper. Through this project, I contributed to the educational resources provided by the Department of Development Communication at VSU.

500th Year Anniversary of Limasawa Island as the Site of the 1st Easter Mass in Asia

Videographer, Video Editor, and Graphic Designer

I was hired to commemorate the 500th Year Anniversary of Limasawa Island as the Site of the 1st Easter Mass in Asia. This involved creating informative and visually captivating videos that highlighted the historical significance of the island. Additionally, I was responsible for curating and publishing exceptional photos on their Facebook page, showcasing the beauty and cultural heritage of Limasawa Island. The celebration spanned over a month, during which I captured significant moments and created compelling visual content to engage and inform the audience about this milestone event in the island's history.

Social Media Etiquette among Eastern Samar State University Students

Research Member

I had the privilege of being a member of an exceptional undergraduate research team that was honored with the Best Research Award in the Mass Communication Department. Our research focused on assessing the knowledge of ESSU (Eastern Samar State University) students regarding Social Media Etiquette. As a team of five, we collectively poured our efforts and dedication into this project, working tirelessly to achieve and clearly demonstrate the objectives of our research. This recognition underscores our commitment to conducting meaningful and impactful research in the field of mass communication, as well as our ability to collaborate effectively and produce high-quality work.

Eastern Samar Reporter

Student-Journalist

During my internship at the Eastern Samar Reporter, alongside four fellow Mass Communication classmates, I had the tremendous opportunity to contribute to the publication by writing and publishing 11 news articles. Surpassing the required minimum of 10 articles, I actively covered various significant events, including the 2013 elections, for this weekly community newspaper based in Borongan City, Eastern Samar. I take great pride in having some of my news articles prominently featured on the front page, enabling me to share important stories with a wider readership. This experience allowed me to hone my journalistic skills, gain valuable insights into the field, and make a meaningful impact within the local community
