Profile

As a culture and arts education graduate, I am committed to fostering inclusivity and accessibility in the arts. I believe everyone should have the opportunity to engage with and benefit from artistic expression. Through my studies and future career, I hope to promote cultural diversity, encourage artistic exploration, and empower individuals to find their own unique voice through the arts. I also have background in Physical Education and a genuine passion for promoting physical well-being and fostering a love for sports and fitness. I am committed to making a positive impact on my students' lives and fostering a love for physical activity that will stay with them for years to come.
