To whom it may concern,

Good day!

This is Honey Gee L. Braganza, an applicant. I write this letter to apologize since I would not be able to submit my performance rating as of the moment. I'm currently communicating to my previous employer about my request for that document. I promise to submit my performance rating as soon as I have it with me.

I'm hoping for your kind consideration.

Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Honey Gee L. Braganza
