Dear Ma'am Colis,

I'm writing this letter to in response to the job post came across on a site. I would like to apply for the vacant position of Administrative Aide VI.

I am Noreen T. Sta. Iglesia, a 24-year-old female, single and currently residing in A. Bonifacio St. Zone 1, Baybay City, Leyte. I am a graduate of BS in Secondary Education in Visayas State University- Main Campus on September 2021. As a student, I was able to study in different areas of my degree program and gained some practical and technical skills. I acquainted myself with a range of skills that would allow me to blend in different environment.

I am organized and thorough individual with excellent computer and social skills that would allow me to adjust swiftly in a new work environment. I am also interested in taking new challenges and learning new skills and responsibilities that would improve my current skills. I would like to express my honest desire to apply this position as Administrative Aide VI.

Sincerely yours,

Noreen T. Sta. Iglesia
