Dear Dr. Bayron S. Barredo,

I, the undersigned hereby expresses the desire to apply for the Part-time teaching position at your esteemed institution. Attached herewith is my curriculum vitae for your perusal. With confidence in my ability to deliver effective instruction and supervision, coupled with strong communication skills and a professional work ethic, I believe I can significantly contribute to the success of your school.

Having committed to my profession, serving as a Part-time Instructor at Visayas State University Integrated High School during the academic year 2023-2024, and fulfilling the role of Junior ESL Teacher on the 51Talk Platform from November 2021 to December 2022. My tenure in private schools has honed my skills as an educator, and I am eager to apply these experiences to a more challenging professional setting. I am convinced that your institution offers the perfect platform for me to achieve this aspiration.

Recognizing education as the cornerstone of student success, I aspire to continue serving VSU, renowned for nurturing excellence across diverse fields. My objective is to foster an engaging learning atmosphere that inspires students to excel, while further refining my teaching abilities.

Beyond my teaching capabilities, I bring additional skills and expertise across diverse domains that I am keen to incorporate into my instructional approach. Presently, I am advancing my education with a focus on Filipino through a Master's degree program in Education. My academic journey includes the attainment of a Bachelor of Secondary Education degree from Visayas State University in June 2020. I firmly believe that this well-rounded background distinguishes me from other applicants seeking opportunities within your institution.

Acknowledging the importance of continuous professional growth, I have actively participated in various teacher training programs over the past years. These experiences have not only enhanced my interpersonal skills but also deepened my involvement in community development initiatives. Collaborative teamwork is an aspect I particularly value, as I believe it brings out the best in individuals within a community.

Beyond imparting linguistic knowledge, I am keen to instill the value of collaboration and social interaction among your students. I trust that my dedication and multifaceted approach to education align well with the ethos of your institution. Thank you for considering my application and for the time devoted to it.

Sincerely,

Ashierah Rhyce Esco
