RE: Part-Time Instructor

Dear Sir Tripole,

Upon encountering a job opening for a Part-Time Instructor position posted on the VSU jobs portal, I was eager to apply. When I reviewed the job description, I was excited to see how well my experiences and qualifications align with the university's needs and position requirements. I completed my Bachelor's degree in Chemistry at this very institution and obtained my chemical technician license in 2018. I believe that my educational background and eligibility qualify me as a strong candidate for the Part-time Instructor position.

I have experience teaching in the same department for a total of one academic year. The first time was back in 2020, when I realized that my passion lies in teaching. Last year, I was given the opportunity to teach again. As a former Part-time Instructor at DoPAC, I am already familiar with the department's teaching methodologies, curriculum, and the expectations set for instructors. During my previous teaching engagement, I had the opportunity to teach various subjects, including both lecture and laboratory subjects. With my experience as both a Laboratory and Lecture teacher, I believe I have the skills to excel in this role. Additionally, I have nearly four years of industry experience. My previous roles have strengthened my interpersonal and communication skills, as well as my keen attention to detail and accuracy. I am excited to bring my skills to the Department of Pure and Applied Chemistry. The knowledge, experience, and training I gained in my previous jobs will make me an asset and a good fit for the role.

I believe that my educational background, relevant experience, and extensive training make me a qualified candidate. Additional documents are attached for your perusal. I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience and discussing how my experience and qualifications will prove valuable in the role. Thank you, and God bless.

Sincerely,

Angelica C. Managbanag
