AL FRANJON M. VILLAROYA

Department Head

Department of Philosophy and Social Sciences

Visayas State University

Visca, Baybay City, Leyte

Dear Mr. Al,

I am composing this letter to convey my enthusiasm for the Instructor position in the Department of Philosophy and Social Sciences at Visayas State University, which was recently advertised on jobs.vsu.edu.ph. I am enthusiastic about the prospect of launching my teaching career and making a meaningful contribution to the academic community at your esteemed institution, having recently finished my Bachelor of Arts (Economics) of the Division of Social Sciences at the University of the Philippines Tacloban College.

During my undergraduate studies, I took a number of interdisciplinary social science courses, which provided me with a comprehensive grasp of how economic theories, sociological principles, and philosophical investigations are all interconnected. This interdisciplinary approach has greatly improved my critical thinking abilities, allowing me to examine difficult societal issues from a variety of viewpoints. This will allow me to deliver the learning material in a way that emphasizes the relationship between other social science areas, increasing the learning experience for students.

One of the primary advantages of taking multidisciplinary social science classes throughout my undergraduate studies was the capacity to integrate different subjects and apply holistic answers to real-world situations. For example, my research paper, titled "A Study on the Willingness to Pay for 'Solar Home System' of Residents in Barangay 27, Tacloban City as an Alternative Renewable Source of Electricity Service Connection," combined economic analysis and sociopolitical context to provide a comprehensive understanding of renewable energy adoption. This experience has prepared me to help students explore the diverse nature of social sciences.

Visayas State University's Department of Philosophy and Social Sciences appeals to me in particular because of its interdisciplinary approach. I am looking forward to combining my economics knowledge with larger social science perspectives, and encouraging students to think critically about the relationship of economic policies and societal challenges. Your department's commitment to supporting interdisciplinary research and developing a collaborative academic environment is completely consistent with my own educational perspective.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my background, skills, and passion for education can contribute to the Department of Philosophy and Social Sciences at Visayas State University. Please feel free to contact me at 09933241629 or jbbibat@up.edu.ph to schedule an interview or to request any additional information.

Sincerely,

James
