Dear Dr. Yepes,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the teaching position of Instructor I specifically for Agricultural Extension. Having studied the job description posted, I believe that that I have met the minimum requirements needed including the skills, attributes, and experiences to become competent, high-performing, and impactful instructor in this institution. With a passion for teaching and a commitment to fostering academic excellence, I am eager to impart my academic insights to our vibrant academic institution. I finished BS in Development Education with a major in Agricultural Extension here in 2018. I served as Graduate Teaching Assistant (GTA) here at Department of Agricultural Education and Extension (DAEEEx) for two academic years including mid-year classes and I was able handle undergraduate courses that help me polish my skills and knowledge in classroom management and student assessments. These have helped me effectively engage with the students and efficiently support the teaching-learning process. In addition, I am a registered agriculturist and have previously served as one of the reviewers for our LEA classes here at VSU. Now, I am waiting to receive my diploma for my master's degree in Agricultural Extension this coming August 6, 2024.

Attached are my Personal Data Sheets (PDS), TOR, diploma, certificates, and other relevant documents that provide additional information on my academic background, teaching experience, and professional achievements.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to join your excellent faculty team and contribute more to our beloved Visayas State University.

Warm regards,
