Department of Development Communication

Dear Sir,

I am expressing my interest for the position of ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR V in Development Communication (Job Code DVAOIJ) as posted in VSU-HRIS.

My qualifications and work experience greatly exceed the minimum requirements for the said post.

I am convinced that my 20-years of ESL/EFL teaching experience, postgraduate degrees in language instruction and educational leadership, and strong development communication research background (as reflected in my involvement in various international summer schools, exchange programs, and publications in Australia, Japan, Hong Kong, Taiwan, United States, France, Norway, Austria, Netherlands, and United Kingdom) would be an asset to the university.

My flexible personality and strong commitment to work (as reflected in my advocacy for agriculture and sustainability, endeavors to learn Semitic, European, and Asian languages, and in being a violinist), and potential to interact professionally in a multicultural and international environment (as cultivated in my experience as a Youth Ambassador to Southeast Asia in 2003 and my partnership with the OXFAM in 2004) would also bring significant contributions.

It is my hope to discuss with you more about my merits in this application and my interest to be under your management and authority as a prospective employee. Attached are my CV and other related documents for your perusal.

Very truly yours,

DR. JOHN IVAN V. PALAGAR, D.A.
