Regarding: Job Application as a Part-Time Instructor

Dear Mr. Al Franjon Villaroya,

Upon reviewing your advertised vacancy for a Part-Time Instructor, I am compelled to express my keen interest in the position. Having thoroughly examined the details of the role with great enthusiasm, I am eager to convey my qualifications and dedication to contributing to the success of your department.

Since September of last year, I have served as a part-time instructor within your department, and the prospect of continuing my professional journey within this esteemed institution is both exciting and motivating. The positive and enriching work environment has not only contributed to my professional growth but has also fostered my well-being. I am confident that my experience and commitment align seamlessly with the qualities required for success in this role.

I hold a Bachelor of Secondary Education Major in Social Studies degree and have successfully applied my academic knowledge through various lectures and projects, aligning with the responsibilities of a Part-Time Instructor. My educational background equips me with the necessary skills to make a meaningful contribution to your team.

I am driven by the desire to make a lasting impact on your company. The challenges presented by the role of a Part-Time Instructor inspire me, and I am eager to utilize my expertise to enhance the learning environment within your institution. I firmly believe that my experiences align perfectly with the requirements of the position, and I am poised to bring significant value to your department.

I am open to discussing my qualifications and motivation further during a personal interview, where I can provide additional insights into my background and aspirations. I can be reached by phone at 0966 165 4424 or via email at xavieryricgalloscañezo@gmail.com.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to contribute to the continued success of your department.

Sincerely,

Xaviery Ric G. Cañezó
