General Policies on PARRFI Professorial Chair Award

Criteria:

The following criteria shall be considered in the selection of nominees for professorial chairs:

1. Academic Background. The candidate for a professorial chair should have earned at least a master's degree or its equivalent. He should have served the University as faculty member for at least five years. During the last year immediately preceding the award, he should have at least taught one regular course.
2. Teaching Competence. In determining the competence of the candidates, the following shall be considered:
 - a. Mastery of the subject;
 - b. Ability to impart knowledge;
 - c. Rapport with peers and students; and
 - d. Quality of teaching materials.
3. Research/Creative Output. This includes any and all such work embodying the results of basic or applied research and development or creative work. In applying this criterion, quality, quantity and relevance shall always be considered.
4. Extension or Community Service. This shall include public service activities, i.e. in training programs, specialist support, extension information and action programs.

Selection:

Nominations for appointment to this professorial chair shall be initiated and screened by the University. A shortlist will be submitted to PARRFI for final selection.

Terms and Conditions of Award:

All recommendations for appointment (original, renewal or reappointment) to this professorial chair shall be submitted to the President of PARRFI for presentation to the Board of Trustees.

Term. The appointment shall be for one (1) year, without prejudice to renewal for another year, and shall be longer than two (2) consecutive years only if specified in the grant creating the award.

Duties of Chairholder. During his term, the holder of the professorial chair shall:

1. teach at least one regular course in the undergraduate or graduate level
2. deliver a public scholarly lecture within the year of his appointment, or
3. publish a scholarly paper in a reputable journal within the year of his appointment.

Remuneration. Each professorial chair award shall carry the amount of P30,000 per annum. Monthly honorarium/grant is P2,000.

The balance of P6,000 will support supplies, services and travel expenses associated with the grant.

Termination. Failure to perform any of the duties aforementioned shall be sufficient cause for revoking the award. The award shall be forfeited should the holder go on leave of absence for a total of at least three months during the year. Moreover, a Chairholder who fails to deliver his lecture within the term of his appointment shall be asked to reimburse in full the honoraria paid to him during the period of his appointment.
