R E: Printing of the VSU Mission, Goals and Objectives in Some Important Documents

The University is applying for accreditation as a National University of Agriculture. Under Institutional Profile, it is a must that the mission, goals and objectives be widely disseminated and printed in various documents such as programs, invitations, bulletins, brochure, course outlines, course syllabus, catalogs, manuals, newsletters, Memorandum of Agreement, etc.

In view of this, you are hereby directed to include the mission, goals and objectives of the University in all documents, manuals, programs, and other important documents prepared and initiated in your units.

This directive is issued in order to prepare our university of the documents needed to support our accreditation as a National University of Agriculture.

For the cooperation of all concerned.
