T O: All VSU Faculty and Students

R E: Use of English as Medium of Instruction

It has come to the attention of this Office that some faculty members are using the vernacular in their classes. As part of our effort for quality and excellence in instruction and to prepare our students for their exposure to the real-world use of English in various settings for global competitiveness, all faculty members are hereby required to use English as the medium of instruction, except in Filipino classes. All students are likewise encouraged to speak English inside and outside the classrooms to develop their communication skills.

Deans and Department Heads are directed to monitor the strict implementation of this memorandum.
