R E: Job-seeking Webinar

To compete in the job market, it is imperative for the job applicants to have an impressive resume, being prepared for an interview and other preparations to consider in applying for a job. The University through the Office of the Career and Job Placement Services, in partnership with the Jobs180.com, will spearhead the university-wide job-seeking webinar via Facebook and YouTube on April 28, 2022 at 2:00pm.

A wider dissemination of this activity is needed to attain the maximum participation of the students.

Please be guided accordingly.
