MEMORANDUM NO. 183

Series of 2002

T O: Mr. Junito Panonce - Junito 8/13/02
R E: Complaint Against Your Wife, Ms. Cecilia Natividad Panonce

This office received a complaint by a certain Don Immanuel A. Edralin, BSA II against your wife relative to an incident which happened at the Coconut Dorm last June 20, 2002.

Said complaint was immediately investigated by the OSA Ad Hoc Committee whose findings and recommendation are as follows:

1. That Ms. Panonce should be reminded about certain decorum on her jurisdiction over the affairs of the dorm occupants inasmuch as she is not the official adviser of the Coconut Dormitory.
2. That Ms. Panonce should be advised that in her future dealings with students be it in dormitories or in the classroom, she should be more tolerant in listening to different views, suggestions from students on certain issues and not curtail their freedom to defend their views.
3. That Mr. Edralin may continue staying in the Coconut Dormitory unless he opts to transfer to another place/dorm. Furthermore, since dormitory residency of students is a training ground, the "wisdom of the old" should not be perceived negatively.

In view of this, you are hereby requested to relay said findings to your wife and to require her to comply with said recommendations. It is hoped that this incident will not occur again in the future.

Please be guided accordingly.
