R E: Call to participate in the RAFI CFL Virtual Learning Session on Leadership Conversations

The fast-changing landscape in managing and leading organizations poses various challenges to organization leaders as they navigate their team and organization especially in this new normal.

Despite the global COVID-19 pandemic, the RAFI Center for Leaders remains committed to providing powerful learning experiences that enable leaders and communities with character, competence, and inspiring citizenship. In this connection, the RAFI Center for Leaders will facilitate a Leadership Conversation program that aims to develop leadership skills to be adaptive and responsive to new situations.

In this light, you are hereby nominated to participate in this program. Specifically, the virtual learning session will tackle the following key topics:

- Leadership in the 21st Century
- Leadership challenges and skills needed
- Understanding the needs of the followers

Attached please find the Program Proposal for your guidance and reference.

Finally, kindly confirm to this email your willingness to commit in this endeavor.

EDGARDO E. TULIN
President
