R E: Allowing Back Riding or Pillion Riding on Motorcycles for Married Couples inside the University

In consonance with the proclamation from the Department of Interior and Local Government (DILG), back riding or pillion riding on motorcycles inside the University is hereby allowed for married couples and common-law husband and wife only.

As per DILG and IATF guidelines, couples must at all times observe public health standards by wearing face masks, face shields, and or installing the recommended protective shield. Road safety standards such as, but not limited, to wearing helmets and observing speed limit must also be observed.

Furthermore, couples must present either of the following documents to be allowed entry:

- Copy of Marriage Certificate
- ID bearing the same family name
- Barangay certification

For guidance of all concerned.
