R E: Participation in the Training-Workshop on MOODLE Software

In line with our effort to offer Land Administration and Management (LAM) online courses this First Semester of SY 2013-2014, you are hereby requested to participate in the two-day Training-Workshop on the Modular Object Oriented Dynamic Learning Environment (MOODLE), an open source software that will be used to manage the online delivery of LAM courses. The training will be held on May 2-3, 2013 at DCST, VSU, Visca, Baybay City, Leyte.

The LAM graduate faculty and other participants are expected to bring their course syllabus and laptop for their hands-on activity during the training.

Your attendance to the said the training is the first step towards realizing our goal to offer online courses at the Open University.
