MEMORANDUM NO. 67
Series of 2001

T O: Mr. Raul Abit, Jr.
c/o Mr. Raul Abit, Sr. [Signature]

R E: Resolution of the Complaint Filed by ROTC Officer
Noel Amamangpang

The committee assigned to look into the complaint filed by Mr. Noel Amamangpang wherein you barged into the ROTC Office, threw a typewriter, boxed the doors and lockers of the rooms and angrily looked for the complainant, found you guilty of the acts complained of.

However, since you are not enrolled during the time of the incident, this office cannot impose on you the penalties applicable to students but instead that of a resident of this campus. Thus, this office is requiring you to execute an affidavit, duly notarized stating among others an admission of having committed the acts mentioned in the complaint and with a promise NOT TO DO them again, otherwise, similar violation will be dealt with severely by the College. In addition, you are also directed to restore the damaged typewriter to its original condition before the incident. A copy of the required affidavit should be forwarded to this office not later than May 15, 2001 together with the report from the ROTC Officials that the typewriter is already restored to its original status.

Finally, this office would like to request the ROTC Commandant to emphasize to all concerned that the ROTC headquarters is off-limits to outsiders including Mr. Raul Abit, Jr. and that any incident involving any student enrolled in ROTC should be relayed to the Office of the President. As Chief Executive of the College, she should be knowledgeable of what is going on especially involving College staff and students.

Let a copy of this memo be provided to Lt. del Fiero.
