R E: Philippine Independence Day Parade

June 12, 2000 marks the 102nd Anniversary of the Philippine Independence. In line with the directive from the Department of Interior and Local Government (DILG), Commission on Higher Education (CHED) and the Mayor of Baybay for ViSCA participation in the said occasion, you are all encouraged to join the Independence Day Parade in Baybay on June 12 at 7:00 a.m. Assembly is in front of the Baybay Church of the Immaculate Conception at 6:30 a.m.

All department/center heads are requested to advise the OP c/o Prof. J. Lim on the number of participants per office so we can determine the number of vehicles to be dispatched.

The attire is Filipiniana for females while Barong Tagalog or Camisa Chino for males.

The ViSCA bus, stationed at the ViSCA Outpost No. 1, will convey to Baybay at no cost, from 6:00 – 6:30 a.m. individuals who will participate in the Parade.

Thank you for your usual cooperation.

PACIENCIA P. MILAN
President
