WP - Withdrawal with Permission. To withdraw from a class with permission, students must complete a Load Revision Form and submit it to the Registrar's Office within the deadline set by the Registrar.

Grade of C. Students who receive a "C" in a required course must retake the course and obtain a grade of at least "B". If the course happens to be an elective, students must repeat the course or substitute another in its place. No grade below "B" will be accepted for degree credit.

Grade of "Inc". Students who receive a grade of "Inc" are required to complete the requirements within the deadline set by the instructor or at least one month before the end of the one year grace period if the instructor sets no deadline. Students who fail to do so within the specified time limit will automatically be given a grade of "F". Students with an "INC" in a course that is a pre-requisite to a succeeding course will not be allowed to register in the succeeding course.

Grade of "W". Students who receive this grade are not entitled to any graduate credit for the course.

Grade Point Average

The GPA will only be computed based on the GPE of all graduate courses taken beginning Intersession SY 2018-2019.

Course Units

One unit of credit is one hour lecture/recitation or two to four hours of laboratory each week for the period of a complete semester.

Academic Calendar

The academic year is divided into two semesters of eighteen (18) weeks each and an intersession term of six (6) weeks. Class work in the intersession is equivalent to class work for one semester. The school year begins in June for the Intersession term. The first semester begins in August while the second semester begins in January.
