TRAINING/WORKSHOP/ORIENTATION PROPOSAL

Title: Bachelor of Arts in English Language Studies Curriculum Review

Participants: DALL Faculty

Date: August 11, 2023: 08:00 A.M. -05:00 P.M.

Venue: DALL Conference Room

Rationale:

In line with the University's Curriculum Review, DALL proposes to conduct a Curriculum Review Workshop on the Bachelor of Arts in English Language Studies to verify the correctness and incorporate the latest changes of all curricular information according to the existing CHED Memorandum and Guidelines.

The primary objective of the workshop is to assess the alignment of ABELS Course Outcomes and Program Objectives. This assessment is essential in determining whether the individual courses effectively contribute in achieving the broader goals of the program and in fostering student's scholarly development. In addition, the workshop also enhances the teaching-learning process focusing on student-centric approach to promote better learning outcomes for our students.

Finally, the curriculum review workshop tackles the COPC application of the other ABELS specialization. Most importantly, the outcomes of this Curriculum Review Workshop demonstrate our commitment to academic excellence and continuous improvement in providing an excellent educational experience to our students.

Objectives:

- To revisit the course checklist of the Bachelor of Arts in English Language Studies program
- To check that all information is correct and updated.
- To examine if the Course Outcomes are aligned to the Program Objectives.
- To determine the strengths, weaknesses and areas which needs improvement to facilitate the teaching-learning process.

Methodology/Strategy:

- Presentation of Bachelor of Arts in English Language Studies curriculum
- Brainstorming, open discussion and workshop will follow.
- Examination and evaluation of course number, descriptive title, units, prerequisites, semester and year offered.
- The revision of the entries will be done, if needed.
- The highlights of the revision will be presented after the workshop.

Resources Needed: LCD Projector/ Smart TV, Laptop, Pen and Paper.

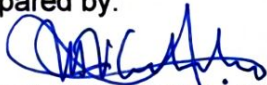

Expected Outcome:

- Revision of the Bachelor of Arts in English Language Studies curriculum
- Alignment of the degree program to the VSU Program Objectives and CHED Guidelines.
