The DSS need for one (1) Instructor effective 1st sem, SY 2023-2024, was presented and deliberated.

Discussion

As discussed by the APB regarding the distribution of the newly created items/positions, Dr. Victor B. Asio presented to the Board the need for a faculty of the Department of Soil Science, considering that the department will start to implement its PhD in Soil Science effective 1st semester 2023-2024. Thus, he is requesting the APB that the department should also be included in the prioritization of the newly created positions to be distributed. Then the Board unanimously decided to grant the request of DSS and give one (1) position to be taken from the DA whose been given 2 slots for the new Instructor position. However, they have to wait for the position to become available as the hiring process for the in-House promotion is on-going.

Thereupon, below is the APB action which was approved by the University President.

APB Resolution No. 216
