Dear Dr. Tulin:

Warm greetings!

The Department of Agronomy is requesting your good office four part-time instructors to help support the existing faculty in the instruction function of the department for this upcoming first semester SY: 2023-2024. Currently, our faculty, Ms. Ma. Gweneth M. Abit is still on study leave at Oklahoma State University, and Ms. Loreme S. Cagande is also slated to pursue her Ph.D. degree starting this 1st semester of SY: 2023-2024 at the UP, Los Baños, Laguna, as per approved Faculty Development Plan. However, the Ph. D. program in Agronomy is aligned to offer this coming first semester in which there was already an approved COPC for this year's implementation.

In this light, we may request your good office to allow us to hire four part-time instructors to solve the heavy teaching loads of our existing faculty.

Attached is the projected faculty workload of the Department of Agronomy for your perusal.

Very truly yours,

The DA Academic Personnel Committee:
